

COHO

COHO is proud to introduce its new Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon from the exceptional 2013 vintage. The wine is sourced from five small, family-owned vineyards located on Diamond Mountain, Yountville, and Coombsville. Spicy aromatics of licorice and mocha lead to a rich palate of cassis and black cherry flavors. The wine has a lively acidity that will support the flavors for years of exceptional enjoyment. However you won't have to wait as it is already eminently enjoyable. Antonio Galloni wrote in Vinous "This is one of the more open-knit, voluptuous wine(s) of the year...Readers looking for immediate gratification will find plenty of that here".
