

COHO

Coho 2002 Russian River Valley Pinot Noir

Harvest:	September 6, 2002, hand picked
Appellation:	Russian River Valley
Vineyard:	Del Rio Ranch Vineyards
Vines:	Pommard Pinot Noir clone on 3309 rootstock
Location:	West Side Road, Russian River Valley
Brix at Harvest:	24.2 Brix
PH:	3.48 pH
Total Acidity:	0.70 g/L
Crush:	25% whole cluster inclusion
Pre-fermentation:	4 days at 50 degrees F
Fermentation:	Natural yeast
Peak Temperature:	94 degrees F
Pressing:	After six days
Aging:	Native malo-lactic fermentation in barrel
Oak:	1/3 new French Oak, mixed coopers, medium and medium plus toasting with toasted heads
Time in wood:	10 months
Bottled:	August 12, 2003
Produced:	182 cases produced
Release Date:	February 1, 2004

Winemaker's Notes:

This wine captures a quintessential and beautiful depth of Pinot fruit aromas coupled with a silky, opulent texture and high extract volume characteristic of the most exceptional vineyard sites in the Russian River Valley.

Finished Wine Statistics:

Alcohol:	13.95%
Ph:	3.62 pH
TA:	0.63 g/L