

CONNOISSEURS' GUIDE TO CALIFORNIA WINE

COHO Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley 2018

$75.00

This attractive Cabernet pleases from the outset with its varietally precise aromas of currants, sweet loam and cola-like notes. It displays a touch of polish even at its nascent stage of development and is balanced on the palate with suggestions of suppleness played against a firm, never brusque underbelly and a long, rich, ripe-leaning finish. It should age nicely for four to seven years and hold well after that.
