

COHO

The goal at COHO has always been to make balanced, supple wines that reflect the rich, nuanced fruit and crisp acidity that are the hallmark characteristics of the cooler climate vineyards of Napa Valley. Our 2018 Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon is an aromatic, deeply flavored, elegant wine that reflects all our winemaking aspirations.

The Cabernet Sauvignon in this wine was grown on the prestigious Sugarloaf East Vineyard on a hillside southeast of downtown Napa. The Petit Verdot is from the Chinn Vineyard, a small family run vineyard in Coombsville. These fog cooled sites imbue aromas of boysenberry and plums, with light currant and baking spices undertones. The flavors are seamless and silky, displaying dark fruits that delightfully linger as the wine disappears.
